

Driver Trainers Licence Code of Conduct

The Driver Trainer will abide by the following:

- Have complete knowledge and understanding of the vehicle and its systems that he/she is going to instruct in.
- At all times behave in a proper and professional manner towards clients.
- At all times provide driving instruction to clients to the best of the Trainers ability with respect and consideration for the skill of the driver.
- If a driver is clearly a danger to themselves and others, then the responsibility of the trainer is to return to a safe place and carry out an explanation for stopping.
- At no time subject clients to harassment (sexual or otherwise), abuse, foul or suggestive language or unwanted attention of any kind.
- Maintain proper standards of dress and personal hygiene.
- Must be attentive at all times and never allow the customer to drive without instruction.
- Try to avoid physical contact with clients except in an emergency or in the normal and accepted method of greeting.
- Whilst reserving the right to decide against giving tuition, the instructor will not act in any way which contravenes legislation on discrimination.
- In his/her own personal driving, drive in such a manner as to set a good example to other clients and other road users.
- Must have at all times at zero-blood alcohol reading with a BAC of less than 0.01.

Public and Professional Liability cover provided under policy no. B0507N17QA12400 issued by Lloyds of London Personal Accident Sports Injury cover provided under policy no. SP/96000/000/14/F issued by Dual Australia on behalf of certain underwriters at Lloyds of London.

03 5721 7800

info@aasa.com.au

www.aasa.com.au

AASA House 41 Fox Street, Winton VIC 3673

